Trusting God in Every Season

As we enter the month of October, we are surrounded by the unmistakable signs of God's handiwork. The days grow shorter, the air grows cooler, and creation itself seems to invite us to pause and reflect. The changing colors of the trees are a vivid reminder that God's timing is perfect, and that every season holds both beauty and purpose. Just as the earth prepares for rest, we too are reminded to rest in the Lord and trust His steady hand at work in our lives.

October also provides us with an opportunity to consider how we live in community. Autumn is often a time of gathering - families around the table, neighbors lending a hand, and congregations joining together in worship and service. These rhythms of fellowship point us back to the truth that we were not created to walk alone. The Apostle Paul urges us to "encourage one another and build each other up" (1 Thessalonians 5:11), and this season offers many ways to embody that calling in both word and deed.

As we move through this month, may we take time to notice the blessings of God all around us. Let us be intentional about giving thanks, not only for the beauty of creation, but also for the people and opportunities He places in our lives. And as the year begins to draw toward its close, let October be a season of renewal in our faith, deepening our trust in Christ, who is constant in every season of life.

Give thanks to the Lord, for he is good; his love endures forever." Psalm 107:1

Meet Our Confirmands

Our current confirmation class is led by Erika Bochat. Confirmands gave presentations on their heroes of the Bible in September.

Rose introduces us to her hero Esther.

Isabel explains why Esther is her heroine of the Bible.

Fallon shares why she chose Ruth as her heroine of the Bible.

Kace tells us what he learned about his hero Moses.
